

New MD and Sales Director for Strawberry Star Developments

Strawberry Star Developments has recruited a new Managing Director and a new Director of Residential Sales & Lettings, both from United House Developments.

Nick Stonley has joined as Managing Director to set up and establish a Strawberry Star Development Division. He was previously Managing Director of United House Developments, where he worked for over seven years, and, before that, was a Managing Director of several divisions of Berkeley Homes. He's also a Non Exec for the Notting Hill Housing Group.

Antony Crovella has signed up as Director of Residential Sales & Lettings at the new Strawberry Star Developments division, also joining from United House Developments, where he was Sales & Marketing Director. Before United House, Crovella was an Associate with EA Shaw for over a decade.
